

Bath Tub Enamels...

No tedious process—can be applied by ANYBODY SUCCESSFULLY.

Neal's Bath Tub Enamels

They resist hot and cold water. Form a hard, smooth, lustrous surface.

Price, 25c, 40c and 70c Cans.

MATTHEWS BROS. 320 Lackawanna Ave.

Can Cuba Do It? That's a question. However, there is no question but what we can save money for you and at the same time give you the best in...

Wall Paper, Pictures, Frames, Mouldings, Shades and Paints.

Jacobs & Fasold, 209 Washington Avenue.

THE BEST VALUE FOR 5 CENTS.

Morris' Magnet Cigar

"They draw well." All the popular 5c. Cigars at $1.75 per box, or 9 for $15.

E. C. MORRIS, 325 Washington Avenue. CUT-RATE CIGAR STORE.

In and About The City

Annual Meeting. The officers and managers of the Home for the Friendless will hold an annual meeting this morning at 9.30 at the Home.

Close at Noon Saturdays. The millers and wholesale grain and feed dealers will close at noon Saturdays during the summer months, beginning this Saturday.

Injured in a Sewer Trench. Charles Veingensho, had his ribs fractured by the caving of a sewer trench in South Scranton yesterday.

Civil Service Examinations. Examinations will be conducted July 8 and 9 by the civil service examining board for the positions of inspector of hulls, computer of the geodetic survey and interpreter in the Finnish and Scandinavian languages.

D., L. & W. Pay Days. The employees of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western car shops will be paid this morning, and the machine shops this afternoon.

Bankruptcy Cases. E. D. Phillips, a furniture dealer of Wilkes-Barre, yesterday filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court.

Whitelaw Reid's Narrow Escape. Whitelaw Reid, our special ambassador to the coronation of King Edward VII, was the hero of a little episode which jolly old General Rosecrans was very fond of narrating.

It seems, according to the story, that Mr. Reid, at the time a young man, was serving as war correspondent for the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette with Rosecrans' army in West Virginia.

Said Rosecrans: "I sent an orderly to fetch Mr. Reid—Whitey, the boys used to call him—and I said to him: 'Do you know that I ought to have you shot?'"

"No," Reid looked unpleasantly surprised, and so I added: 'Apparently you don't realize what you have done. Here is a letter of yours which I have been reading. You might just as well have stood on top of a tall tower in Cincinnati and shouted through a trumpet big enough and loud enough to be heard in Richmond. Why don't you out Rosecrans' telegram?' Upon my word, I don't know how to deal with your case. Come over with me to...

Whitelaw Reid's Narrow Escape. Whitelaw Reid, our special ambassador to the coronation of King Edward VII, was the hero of a little episode which jolly old General Rosecrans was very fond of narrating.

It seems, according to the story, that Mr. Reid, at the time a young man, was serving as war correspondent for the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette with Rosecrans' army in West Virginia.

Said Rosecrans: "I sent an orderly to fetch Mr. Reid—Whitey, the boys used to call him—and I said to him: 'Do you know that I ought to have you shot?'"

"No," Reid looked unpleasantly surprised, and so I added: 'Apparently you don't realize what you have done. Here is a letter of yours which I have been reading. You might just as well have stood on top of a tall tower in Cincinnati and shouted through a trumpet big enough and loud enough to be heard in Richmond. Why don't you out Rosecrans' telegram?' Upon my word, I don't know how to deal with your case. Come over with me to...

Whitelaw Reid's Narrow Escape. Whitelaw Reid, our special ambassador to the coronation of King Edward VII, was the hero of a little episode which jolly old General Rosecrans was very fond of narrating.

It seems, according to the story, that Mr. Reid, at the time a young man, was serving as war correspondent for the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette with Rosecrans' army in West Virginia.

Said Rosecrans: "I sent an orderly to fetch Mr. Reid—Whitey, the boys used to call him—and I said to him: 'Do you know that I ought to have you shot?'"

"No," Reid looked unpleasantly surprised, and so I added: 'Apparently you don't realize what you have done. Here is a letter of yours which I have been reading. You might just as well have stood on top of a tall tower in Cincinnati and shouted through a trumpet big enough and loud enough to be heard in Richmond. Why don't you out Rosecrans' telegram?' Upon my word, I don't know how to deal with your case. Come over with me to...

Whitelaw Reid's Narrow Escape. Whitelaw Reid, our special ambassador to the coronation of King Edward VII, was the hero of a little episode which jolly old General Rosecrans was very fond of narrating.

It seems, according to the story, that Mr. Reid, at the time a young man, was serving as war correspondent for the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette with Rosecrans' army in West Virginia.

Said Rosecrans: "I sent an orderly to fetch Mr. Reid—Whitey, the boys used to call him—and I said to him: 'Do you know that I ought to have you shot?'"

"No," Reid looked unpleasantly surprised, and so I added: 'Apparently you don't realize what you have done. Here is a letter of yours which I have been reading. You might just as well have stood on top of a tall tower in Cincinnati and shouted through a trumpet big enough and loud enough to be heard in Richmond. Why don't you out Rosecrans' telegram?' Upon my word, I don't know how to deal with your case. Come over with me to...

Whitelaw Reid's Narrow Escape. Whitelaw Reid, our special ambassador to the coronation of King Edward VII, was the hero of a little episode which jolly old General Rosecrans was very fond of narrating.

It seems, according to the story, that Mr. Reid, at the time a young man, was serving as war correspondent for the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette with Rosecrans' army in West Virginia.

Said Rosecrans: "I sent an orderly to fetch Mr. Reid—Whitey, the boys used to call him—and I said to him: 'Do you know that I ought to have you shot?'" the quarters of the judge advocate general. "I took him over to the judge advocate general of the department, to whom I showed the letter clipped out of the paper, with the headlines and signatures cut off. Said I, 'What ought to be done with the newspaper correspondent who published that? Shoot him?'"

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Closing Business of Grand Army of the Republic at Gettysburg.

Gettysburg, June 5.—A short business meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic of Pennsylvania was held this morning, after which the body adjourned to meet at Allentown next year.

During the session, the following newly-elected officers were installed: Department commander, R. P. Scott, of Butler; senior vice commander, E. L. Schroeder, of York; junior vice commander, Ignatius Gressler, of Allentown; medical director, Dr. M. B. Hughes; chaplain, John W. Sayres, of Reading.

The following appointments were made by the newly-elected commander: Assistant adjutant general, Chas. A. Snydam, of Philadelphia; assistant quartermaster general, Edwin Wallon, of Philadelphia; chief of staff, Kennedy Williams, of Butler.

Forty delegates to the national convention, which meets in Washington, D. C., were chosen, after which the convention was declared adjourned.

TROUBLE WITH UMPIRES.

Eastern League Managers to Consider the Matter.

Buffalo, June 5.—The board of directors of the Eastern League of Base Ball clubs has been called to meet in Buffalo next Saturday to consider complaints regarding umpires.

The case of Umpire Rinn, who was suspended today by President Powers, will probably be taken up. Rinn was removed from the grounds yesterday by the police for alleged disorderly conduct.

Manager Stallings, of the Buffalo team, who had a personal encounter with Rinn prior to his removal from the grounds, has agreed to remain off the bench until the case is settled.

Rioting in Providence.

Providence, R. I., June 5.—The street railway strike took a violent form tonight. Crowds of men blocked the streets and looted the cars.

At some length, Attorney O'Brien and Warren for the defense insisting that the commonwealth should show that McLaughlin was in sound mind at the time and conscious of the fact that he was going to die. Judge Lynch decided to admit the evidence.

Harrison Commits Suicide.

Baltimore, June 5.—George Law Harrison, president of the Alford Sporting Goods company, shot and almost instantly killed himself today at his home at Stevenson, near this city.

He had suffered for several weeks of acute indigestion. His act was probably due to this illness. Mr. Harrison was a member of the Green Spring Valley Hunt club and was well known socially throughout the east.

Reid Will Receive a Degree.

London, June 5.—It was announced tonight that Whitelaw Reid, special envoy of the United States to the coronation of King Edward, will have the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws conferred upon him by Cambridge university at the same time that this degree is given to Professor H. W. Parker, professor of music at Yale university.

Chamberlain's Majority Reduced.

Portland, Ore., June 5.—Complete returns exact from the small precincts from every county in the state give Chamberlain (Democrat) for governor 24 majority. The discovery of an error in counting returns from Multnomah county resulted in favor of Chamberlain by 213 votes.

President Receives Resolutions.

Washington, June 5.—President Roosevelt today received by mail the resolutions adopted by the New York Board of Trade and Transportation urging him to take steps to end the coal strike. It is yet too early to say what action the president will take in the matter.

Wilkes' Trial Trip.

Newport, R. I., June 5.—The torpedo boat Wilkes has taken her standardizing trial over a measured course in Narragansett bay this afternoon, and exceeded by one and a fraction knots her requirement of 25 knots per hour.

Killed in a Landslide.

Rome, June 5.—Signor Ilva, a professor in the University of Rome, and Count Gino Frattini, minister of foreign affairs, were killed in a landslide which assailed Mount Grigna, Switzerland, yesterday.

Saving Them for Next War.

Senator Millard, of Nebraska, was in the National museum the other afternoon. He was examining with much interest a group of wax figures dressed in the various uniforms worn by United States soldiers since the days of the Revolution. A member of a party of tourists stepped up to the senator and said: "Can you tell me, sir, if these are soldiers who were killed in our last war?"

"No," replied Senator Millard; "these are soldiers who are saving to be killed in our next war."—Washington cor. N. Y. World.

SHAKE INTO YOUR SHOES

Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder, it cures painful, smarting, nervous feet and itching nails, and instantly takes the sting out of corns and bunions. It is the greatest comfort discovery of the age.

Allen's Foot-Ease makes light of new shoes and easy. It is a certain cure for sweating callus and hot, tired, aching feet. Try it today. Sold by all druggists and shoe stores. Don't accept any substitute. By mail for 25c in stamps. Trial package FREE. Address, Allen S. Oimsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

SELF-DEFENSE IS THE PLEA

COSGROVE WILL GO ON THE STAND TODAY.

A Night Session of Court Was Held Last Night, Which Enabled the Jury to Get Practically All of the Evidence in the Case, with the Exception of That of the Defendant—Stories Told by the Men with Cosgrove on Dec. 9 Last.

Efforts will be made to get all of the evidence in the Cosgrove case to the jury today, and it is possible the arguments will also be made. Judge Lynch ruled matters yesterday, and with the assistance of a night session, the greater part of the evidence that will be offered in the case was in when court adjourned at 9.30 last night to meet at 9 o'clock this morning. The feature of today's session will be the testimony of the defendant, Cosgrove, who will tell the jury about the happenings of Dec. 9, from his point of view. The defense is confident of an acquittal on the ground of self-defense.

MAGRAN'S STORY.

When court opened yesterday morning, David Holvey again went on the stand for further cross examination. He declared that when he saw Cosgrove point his revolver at McLaughlin and shoot, the revolver was aimed about at McLaughlin's breast.

David Williams, another eye-witness to the shooting, testified that when McLaughlin saw the latter take aim and fire and wound McLaughlin. William Maghran said he was at the bar, shaking dice with John Dacey and John McDonough, when Kofczenski tapped him on the shoulder and said he had a warrant for him. He declined to go with Kofczenski, as his name was not John Doe, the one given in the warrant, and Kofczenski tried to pull him out through the door. His coat caught in the latch and Kofczenski's hands slipped from their hold on his coat and the momentum this gave the officer caused him to go backward off the porch. He noticed that McLaughlin was on the ground, walking away and then heard a shot, followed by the cry of McLaughlin that he was shot.

John Dacey, John McDonough and Thomas Prosser testified that they saw the shooting and that McLaughlin was some distance away from Cosgrove, the distance varying from twenty to thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

Alderman John T. Howe was called to prove that he went to the Lackawanna hospital on Dec. 14 to take McLaughlin's dying declaration with reference to the shooting. The doctor testified that he reduced to writing. Its admission was objected on the ground that the evidence of the physicians called by the commonwealth showed that from the time of the operation until his death McLaughlin's mind was wandering.

The distance between Cosgrove and McLaughlin was testified to be thirty feet, when he was struck by the ball from Cosgrove's revolver.

to Cosgrove: "You were down at the night last night and got hit and you came back for some more, did you?" His description of the man who said this tallies with the description of McLaughlin and the clothes he wore on Dec. 9. About this time witness saw Maghran pass something behind his back to Dunlevy which he believed at the time was a dark metal revolver.

WAS AFTER HIM.

When Kofczenski went through the door, witness saw after him, Cosgrove was outside at the time. Witness was struck and just then he heard five shots fired in the barroom. When he got outside the crowd was pounding Kofczenski and Cosgrove was down from the porch with a revolver in his hand and a man named Dunlevy, who was alone; he is an officer of the law. Witness went to Kofczenski's assistance and pulled Dunlevy away from him. As he did so John O'Rourke began to strike him over the head with his cane. He tried to warn the men off and then saw Dunlevy. He fired in the ground and then seeing Dunlevy with O'Rourke's cane raised to strike him over the head he raised his revolver and the bullet struck Dunlevy in the wrist.

Kinsley said he went toward the middle of the room and seeing a man, who he believed was McLaughlin, pointing a revolver at Cosgrove, he called to the latter to look out for himself. Stones and clubs were being thrown at the three of them as they retreated up the street, the members of the crowd shouting: "Don't let them get away. 'Kill them,' etc. McLaughlin threw a club at Cosgrove, and then Cosgrove fired. That was the end of the disturbance. The club thrown at Cosgrove by McLaughlin was the one which Mrs. Moran took from behind the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone. Witness fired five shots during the melee. He did see Miss Dacey as they got on the car and was sure that Cosgrove did not make the bar when the row began. While they were backing up toward Fifteenth street, McLaughlin's hat was knocked off by a stone